Do you see yourself as part of a successful and growing business, where you get the opportunity to develop together with great colleagues? Are you our new colleague? We are expanding and are looking for a Senior Accountant for our Finance department where you will be an important team player.

Job description

As a Senior Accountant at Alfa, you will take on a business-related role with overall responsibility for the current accounts, financial statements, reporting and analysis for the companies you are responsible for within the Group. You get the opportunity to develop within Alfa and will be a very welcome and important resource in the company, where you also support other colleagues in the finance department. You are part of the management team for your companies and report to the CFO. The position is located in Jönköping or Stockholm.

Main duties

- Current accounts with monthly and annual reporting
- Report VAT and tax returns
- Account and profit analysis
- Reporting to the Group and follow-up
- Budget work and liquidity forecast
- Project accounting with analysis
- Participate in business development

We are happy to see you have a master's degree in economics or equivalent and at least five years' experience working as an accountant with experience of professional qualified accounting work. To succeed in this role, you have a broad knowledge of accounting, have good structure and analysis, have good knowledge of several different systems and are an experienced Excel user. As we are an international company, it is important that you are fluent in Swedish and English in both speech and writing.

To be successful in the role of Senior Accountant at Alfa, you are positive, unpretentious and independent. You have a good ability to work together and enjoy working in a structured way and in teams.

When challenges come, you are solution-oriented and happy to take own initiatives and see opportunities for improvement. Great emphasis is placed on your personal qualities.

Alfa is an exciting, multicultural company creating security and peace of mind for people who move around the world. Together with the owners, the Group has an expansion plan for the coming years, which means great opportunities for development and impact for employees around the Nordic region. The role as Senior Accountant is new and you will, together with the CFO and CEO of the companies you are responsible for, be able to participate in creating this position in detail.

We offer a stimulating and developing work in nice premises in Jönköping or Stockholm. Welcome with your application!
