Negative Covid-19 test requirement on entering Sweden

On 22 December, the government has updated the entry ban, effective from 28 December: all foreign travellers, regardless of which country they travel from, must be able to show a negative test result for ongoing Covid-19 infection (maximum 48 hours old) on arrival in Sweden.

The test requirement applies:

- to foreign nationals travelling from EU/EEA countries, including the Nordic countries, or from other countries, with certain exemptions
- regardless of whether they have been vaccinated or have recovered
- to adults and children over the age of 12.

Exceptions apply to certain categories, e.g. border commuters.
